

Counting the Cost of Following

DISCIPLESHIP SERIES · PART 4 · Luke 14:25-33 (KJV)

Key Verse

“So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.”
— Luke 14:33

Main Points

- 1 Discipleship begins with a decision, not an emotion.
- 2 Christ calls for first place, not spare time.
- 3 Counting the cost is an act of faith, not fear.
- 4 The cross carried daily forms the character of a disciple.

Questions for Reflection

- What has following Christ already cost you this year?
- Where are you still negotiating with the Lord?
- Name one habit you will surrender this week.

This Week's Application

- Read Luke 14 daily this week.
- Write your own statement of surrender.
- Share it with your discipleship group.
